

Advisory Services and Assistance

The Graduate Academy offers assistance to institutions and professors who are planning to establish a PhD programme or research training group, particularly with regard to its conception and funding application. In addition to this, the Graduate Academy offers support in organising qualification events and workshops for doctoral candidates and postdocs.