

Thema / Topic	Compact Course Academic Teaching
Referent / Trainer	Dr. Bettina Ritter-Mamczek
Sprache / Language	English
Datum / Date	22.-24.02.2012, 09.00-17.00 Uhr
Ort / Location	Seminarraum Accouchierhaus, Jenergasse 8
Inhalt / Content	In this practice-oriented course participants will learn to professionalise their methodological and didactical skills, to prepare their classes in a goal-oriented way, to expand their repertoire of methods and to reflect how to deal with exams. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Methodological-didactical overview: teaching and learning in higher education •The basics: teaching, learning, types of learners, retaining facts •The goal is at the starting point: knowledge - ability - intention •More is less? Techniques of reducing and structuring material •Holding activity-oriented seminars: methods, exercises, media for each seminar phase •Successful examinations: conducting and assessing oral and written exams •Skills and abilities as a lecturer Active participation is crucial to this course. Short inputs, discussions, group work and training of different techniques and methods provide possibilities to reflect the contents of the seminar.