

Dr. Karl-Andrew Woltin

Scientific Presentations

05 September 2013, 09.00–17.00 h

Auditorium, „Zur Rosen“, Johannisstraße 13

This one-day training course will focus on the following aspects:

- Overcoming 'stage-fright'
- rhetoric: voice and language
- body language: confidence and charisma
- effective structuring of one's presentation
- avoiding typical presentation and language flaws
- strategically using vocabulary, phrases, and idioms
- cultural characteristics
- dealing with objections and questions.

Due to lively demand, we offer this one-day workshop twice.

Please note that registration is only possible for one of the two dates!
