

Esther Busse

German for Advanced Beginners (A2)

07 April–11 July 2014, see below
Room 164, UHG, Fürstengraben 1

This course is a continuation of the course "German for Beginners (A1)". Target group: Doctoral candidates and Postdocs who have attended a beginner's course (A1) or who already have a basic knowledge of German.

Aim of the course:

- To be able to discuss about issues of daily life such as leisure time, family, work, holidays, events and culture
- Writing texts such as formal and informal letters, postcards, complaints and CVs
- To be able to understand brochures, statistical information, specialised texts, job advertisements

The proficiency level gained in the course corresponds to Language level A2 of the Common European Framework of Reference (CFR).

Course dates:

Intensive week I: 07–11 April 2014, daily 18.00–20.30 h

Semester course: 14 April–04 July 2014

Mondays & Wednesdays 18.00–19.30 h

Intensive week II: 07–11 July 2014, daily 18.00–20.30 h